DICK IS THE LAD WITH THE CAR
IF HE HAD MORE GAS, HE'D TRAVEL FAR
TO GRINNELL HE'D GO TO SEE HIS GIRL
WHO IS CUTE WITH PLENTY OF CURLS.

ED HAS BRIGHT RED HAIR
WHICH DOESN'T NEED MUCH CARE
IT'S THE ENVY OF ALL THE GIRLS
SINCE THEY DON'T HAVE HIS CURLS.

CHUCK WHO HAS A HEART OF GOLD
HAS FICKLE GIRLS WE'RE TOLD
HE TEASES FOR A WHILE
JUST TO GET A LITTLE SMILE.

VERNA IS A SENIOR GIRL
SHE'S REALLY ON THE BALL
THE THING THAT INTERESTS HER
IS A LITTLE BOY NAMED PAUL.

A BOY NAMED DON WEAVER
IS BUSY AS A BEAVER
A GIRL TAKES UP HIS TIME
NONE OTHER IS WORTH A DIME.

LAWRENCE IS HIS NAME
HE WORKS AT BILL'S STATION
A WISCONSIN GAL HAS HIS HEART
SO IT'S NOT WITH HIS RELATION.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1934 thirteen bright eyed children tripped gayly off to school. Our teachers who piloted us were: Mary Cook, Dorothy Adams, Darlene Anderson, Dorothy Smith, Eloise Turner, Arlene McMinnimee, Ruth Pederson, Mrs. Gordon Rhumm, Dorothy Henning, and Mable Swanson. Those beginning the long, hard climb were Carroll Anderson, Carol Beth Ahrens, Billy Adams, Marilyn Miller, Wayne Koger, Patricia Palmer, Charles Newcomer, Ruth Klootwyk, Dick Stoaks, Bonnie May, Betty Mae Kaisand, Carol Lou Stanley, and Verna Lou Musselman. Donald Weaver, from the Gilman Community joined us in the sixth grade. Lawrence Sutten from Milltown, Wisconsin, joines us in the seventh grade, and Richard Lipscomb from Clemons joines us in the eighth grade.

September 2, 1945, we entered N. H. S. as "six green Freshies." Our roll was as follows: Verna Lou Musselman, Charles Newcomer, Richard Stoaks, Donald Weaver, Lawrence Sutten and Richard Lipscomb.

Our minds were filled with wonder as to what High School would be like. When initiation came we found out. It was a tough pull, but with the help of Mr. Sarchett, Mrs. Halbloom, Mrs. Knapp, and Mrs. Nelson we came through with flying colors.

The Sophomore year was the easiest of all. Under the guiding hand of Mr. Sarchett, Miss Richardson, Miss Dobbee, and Mr. Sterritt our minds developed rapidly.

Then came the Junior year, and we had a new faculty to guide us. Under the reliable leadership of Mr. Shilder, Mr. Jackson, Miss Frey, and Mrs. Kee[illegible] we managed to pull through. At the beginning of the first semester Loren Fleener joined us after one and a half years in the Merchant Marines, and Ed Cook joined us from Fergusen.

Having worked hard and under faithful guidance we come to the last year of the journey. New teachers were Miss Pederson, Mr. Smith and Mr. Mourer. The final roll call for the class of '49 is: Verna Lou Musselman, Charles E. Newcomer, Richard A. Stoaks, Laurence W. Sutten, Donald L. Weaver, and Edward L. Cook.

We have finished the first few years of life's journey. We are ready to accomplish the harder tasks life hands out to us. Yet, no matter how hard our work will be in these troubled times, we will have the happy memories of high school days in Newburg to make the clouds seem less dark.

CLASS PROPHECY

BEING A TRAVELING SALESMAN, IT WAS INEVITABLE THAT MY WORK SHOULD ULTIMATELY BRING ME BACK TO DEAR OLD NEWBURG. IT WAS IN THE YEAR 1959, WHEN I RETURNED, BUT I DID NOT FIND THE NEWBURG OF MY HIGH SCHOOL DAYS. IN PLACE OF THE QUAINT LITTLE VILLAGE I HAD ONCE KNOWN, THERE WAS NOW A TEEMING METROPOLIS.

HAVING SOME TIME ON MY HANDS I DECIDED TO LOOK UP MY OLD CLASSMATES. THE FIRST TO COME INTO MY MIND WAS LAWRENCE SUTTEN. BEING LOW ON GAS I PULLED INTO A LARGE AND IMPRESSIVE LOOKING SERVICE STATION. IT SPREAD OUT OVER AN ENTIRE CITY BLOCK, AND IN THE CENTER OF THIS MAMMOTH ESTABLISHMENT, THERE WAS A LARGE CIRCULAR SIGN, GAYLY LIGHTED, WHICH READ "LAWRENCE SUTTEN'S SERVICE STATION." I HAD NEVER EXPECTED LAWRENCE TO BECOME A BUSINESS TYCOON. LAWRENCE INFORMED ME THAT THE REST OF MY CLASSMATES EXCEPT VERNA WERE LOCATED IN THE CITY OF NEWBURG.

VERNA, IT SEEMS HAD MARRIED PAUL CARNAHAN WHO LIVES A HALF MILE SOUTH AND A MILE WEST OF NEWBURG. THEY ARE SPECIALIZING IN RAISING PUREBRED ANGUS CATTLE.

I DECIDED TO VISIT THEM THAT AFTERNOON. VERNA HADN'T CHANGED A BIT. WHILE I WAS THERE THEIR OLDEST DAUGHTER FELL OUT OF THE BARN AND HURT HER LEG. WE PUT HER IN MY CAR AND STARTED TO THE DOCTOR. APPROACHING THE BUILDING TO WHICH VERNA HAD DIRECTED ME, WHAT SHOULD I SEE BUT THE NEON SIGN WHICH READ, "DR. CHARLES E. NEWCOMER, O.B."

DURING OUR CONVERSATION DICK WAS MENTIONED. WHAT HAD BECOME OF DICK?

DICK OWNED A LARGE TROLLEY LINE EXTENDING FROM THE NORTH EDGE OF NEWBURG DOWN TO THE SOUTHWEST CORNER OF THE SMALL CITY OF GRINNELL. I GUESS DICK GOT SO USED TO DRIVING DOWN TO GRINNELL TWICE EACH DAY TO SEE HIS GIRL THAT HE JUST COULDN'T STAY AWAY FROM THERE AFTER HE MARRIED.

I TOLD DICK THAT I HAD SEEN LAWRENCE, VERNA, AND CHUCK, BUT I HADN'T FOUND ED. SO DICK AND I LOCATED HIM AS THE OWNER OF THE LARGEST GUN FACTORY IN IOWA. HE WAS STILL PLANNING TO MAKE IT LARGER.

AS I LEFT THE BOOMING CITY OF NEWBURG I CONCLUDED THAT THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF '49 ARE STILL WAGING A WAR OF GALLANT WORTH AS CITIZENS OF THE COMMUNITY.
